

What is properly meant by "supernaturalism"?

What is properly meant by "supernaturalism" is the kind of position for which what is properly transcendental is (mis-)taken to be something merely categorial. Thus, for supernaturalism, God is yet another being alongside, in addition to, all other beings. Or heaven is yet another world, or world region, alongside, in addition to, the world or other world regions.

Summer 1996