

At one point, Hartshorne offers the following equivalences for the threefold distinction that is essential to his metaphysics:

essence      ≡      universal existence    ≡      individual actuality    ≡      particular