Whereas "metaphysics in a broad sense" designates whatever is and must be present whenever and wherever subjectivity is present, and thus subjectivity as such, "metaphysics in a strict sense" designates whatever is and must be present whenever and wherever reality is present, and thus reality as such.

n.d.; 12 May 2009