

What is "personal identity"?

"Personal identity" is a special form of "individual identity" \equiv "genetic identity," as distinct from "strict identity."

It is the special form of genetic identity involving the persistence of certain defining characteristics in a very complex (nonlinear) bodily society endowed with a preeminent simple (linear) society \equiv soul.

3 May 2009