to Be Used when Requesting Online Reserves, Print Reserves, and Coursepacks/Photocopying

I. For this text, I certify that:

- This text is my own work and I am the copyright owner or have retained the right to make copies for this purpose.

OR

- I have obtained and attach copyright permission from the copyright owner of the work : _____ (please note that the copyright owner may be other than the author/creator of the work).

OR

- This use is within fair use guidelines (completed checklist attached) for purpose & character of use, nature of work, quantity used, and effect of use; and it is the first time I have used this material for this course offering.

OR

- While this is NOT the first time I have used this material for this course, there are overwhelming fair use considerations that make this use fair. (Drew University strongly urges that copyright permission be sought for any material being used more than one offering in the same course.)

OR

- This material is in the public domain (U.S. Government Document; Copyright Expired; Placed in the Public Domain by the author) or licensed under Creative Commons or CopyLeft.

II. Copyright Notice

- This text contains a copyright notice of the form required under the Copyright Law of the United States.

OR

- Please affix the following copyright notice to the work:

This work,
CITATION:

is protected by copyright. Federal copyright law prohibits the reproduction, distribution, public performance, or public display of copyrighted materials without the express and written permission of the copyright owner, unless fair use or another exemption under copyright law applies.

This material is provided solely for the use of students enrolled in this course, and for purposes associated with this course; except for material that is unambiguously and unarguably in the public domain or otherwise licensed for public distribution, these materials may not be retained or further disseminated.
