

Using the Capture Endnote Reference Option

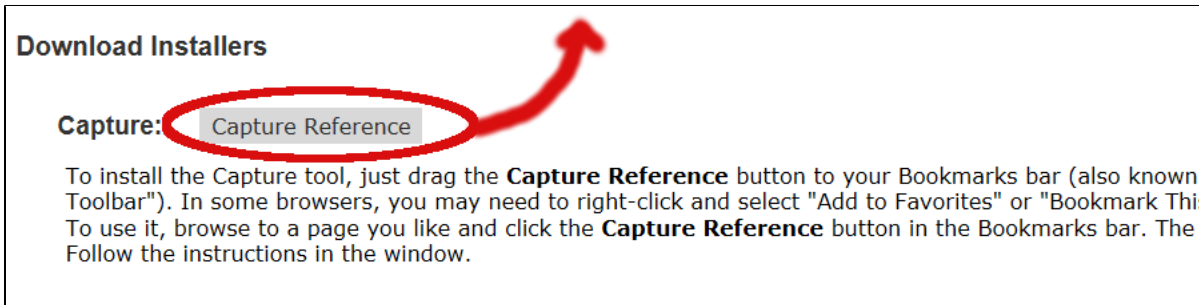

Endnote online offers a Capture Reference button that you can use to get citations from recognizable documents displayed on a web page.

Installing the Capture Reference tool

In general browsers

To install it on Internet Explorer, Safari, and Mozilla (but not Chrome), go to the Download tab in Endnote online, and choose Installers.

The first item on the Installers screen is the Capture Reference bookmarklet.

To install the Capture tool, just drag the Capture Reference button to your Bookmarks bar (also known as Toolbar"). In some browsers, you may need to right-click and select "Add to Favorites" or "Bookmark This". To use it, browse to a page you like and click the Capture Reference button in the Bookmarks bar. The Follow the instructions in the window.

Make sure your Bookmarks or Favorites (depending on the browser) bar is open. Click on the bookmarklet and drag it into the favorites/bookmarks bar at the top of your browser. If asked whether to install it, choose yes.

In Google Chrome

To add the Endnote helper extension to Google Chrome, go to the Google Chrome Web store: <https://chrome.google.com/webstore/category/extensions>

In the Chrome Web Store search for Endnote and select Capture Endnote Reference. To install it, click on the Add to Chrome button next to it.
