

President's House

History

Renovated in the 1960s and located on the edge of Drew's Forest Preserve, the President's House has been home to three Drew presidents. Today the President's House is used to house distinguished visitors to Drew as well as the University Chaplain's office.

Credits

Composed by Anthony D. Rogers, Courtesy of the Drew University Archives.