

12 Campus Drive

Renovated in 1989, this building was originally a private residence, constructed circa 1925. Today the house provides office space for members of the Theological School faculty.

(Text courtesy of University Communications.)